INTERVIEW REPORT

CASE NAME: MIGUEL SILICEO & [REDACTED]

CLASSIFICATION: OFFICER MISCONDUCT

INTERVIEW OF: JOHN EMA, SERRGEANT
FULLERTON POLICE DEPARTMENT

DATE AND TIME: 04/01/2016 1715 HOURS

LOCATION: FULLERTON POLICE DEPARTMENT JAIL

On April 1, 2016, at approximately 1715 hours, I conducted an audio digital recorded interview of Fullerton Police (FPD) Sergeant JOHN EMA regarding the officer misconduct allegations related to FPD Officers MIGUEL SILICEO and [REDACTED]. The recording of the interview was accidentally deleted and unrecoverable. The following is a summary of the interview.

EMA said he was providing a free and voluntary statement. No one from his agency had ordered him to give a statement. He did not feel compelled to give a statement because the district attorney's office was conducting the investigation.

EMA had worked as a police officer for the FPD for over 10 years. He worked previously for the Los Alamitos Police Department as a police officer for 7 years. He was currently assigned to patrol on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 1730 – 0600 hours and was working the same shift in July of 2015.

EMA had no recollection of the incident in question. He was responsible for reviewing police reports as the watch commander on July 9, 2015. He would receive the electronic reports via computer. He would look for spelling and grammatical errors and the elements of the crime charged before approving an arrest report. EMA would normally be relieved by 0515 hours by the supervisor from the following shift. He would attempt to have approved all of the police reports prior to his relief. He said he may have had as many as 70 reports pending approval on the computer at a given time.
